“ There are no words to express how much I will miss you. You by far...were...and still are my favorite aunt. You always made me laugh, always fed my belly full of the best biscuits in the world, and was ALWAYS there when anyone needed you. I hope that in the days to come, you will look down from Heaven and enjoy the stories and the great laughs our family will share in your honor. Love you always Aunt Junaita.

“Malaina and I spoke to you on the phone a few weeks ago...we told you that we love you and you told us
"I love you a bushel and a peck and a hug around the neck".
We miss you more than you'll ever know...
This is one of my favorite poems called The Dash by Linda Ellis

*There was a man who stood to speak
At the funeral of a friend
He referred to the dates on her tombstone from the beginning to the end*

He noted that first came her date of her birth and spoke the following date with tears but he said what mattered most of all was the dash between those years.

*For that dash stands for all the time
That she spent alive on earth.
And now only those who loved her
Know what that little line is worth.*

*For it matters not how much we own;
The cars the house the cash
What matters is how we live and love
And how we spend our dash.*

*So think about this long and hard.
Are there things you'd like to change?
For you never know how much time is left that can still be rearranged.*

*If we could just slow down enough
To consider what's true and real
And always try to understand
The way other people feel.*

We'd be less quick to anger

*And show appreciation more
And love the people in our lives
Like we've never loved before.*

*If we treat each other with respect
And more often wear a smile
Remembering that this special dash
Might only last a little while.*

*So when your eulogy is being read
With your lifes actions to rehash
Would you be proud of the things they say about how you spent your dash?##imported-begin##Lia##imported-end##*
