What a wonderful tribute to a beautiful southern lady. Brought tears to my eyes, a lump in my throat, a smile to my face, and joy to my heart. What a privilege to have known this angel of a woman.

“ It is true, it takes a village to raise a nut. Miss Judon was an original Tribal Leader in my village. I stopped to see her after Christmas and we had a nice visit. She remembered everything I ever did, from sand spurs in my pockets, to Church trips to the beach, to the mountains and Carowinds. We talked about Sunday School and the world renowned Christmas plays. I didn't realize how much we had done together till she reminded me . She helped my parents mold me into the person I am today. To her children I am sorry for your loss, she was wonderful but you knew that. It makes me very happy to know that she is at peace, and she is one more person that I know is waiting for me in heaven.
