“ Moma Judy , I'm going to miss you so much. Living beside you and Donna for 15 years were the some of the best years of my life. You were always there for me and Cody. You were always there with a shoulder to cry on, an ear to listen and you never judge what ever I did. You just loved me just as one of your own. You loved Cody as one of your grandchildren. I know that he grew up and moved away he always loved to see you at the B&B you would come home and tell me that you saw him and hugged him. Then I moved away but with us being close with Donna I tried to stay in contact with you and her and stopped as often as possible. I'll miss you so much. I know that your in Heaven and is now in no pain and your body is completely healed! You were met at the gates with family members who were waiting on you. I love you and keep watching over Donna and Lisa
