“ Judy, as my God-mother, was always like that special soulmate that you can go to when you need strength or encouragement. For as long as I can remember Judy has always been to me that rock that the Lord tells us to build our foundation on; that no matter what storm in life comes our way it will stand strong and hold fast to that trial. Judy was the meaning of strength, perseverance, love, hope, faith, and everything's possible. I believe the Lord used Judy to encourage and Bless others with strength. I love you Judy and you will be greatly missed here in this world, but you are at home with the Lord where you belong. I LOVE YOU###imported-begin###Zach Sitterding###imported-end##

“ We are so sorry for your loss and that you didn't get to share more time with your Aunt Judy in her new home. Judy and my mom, Miss Lillian as she was known at Maas Brothers and forever to Judy, were best friends since they met and worked together. We always looked forward to visiting Judy and going out to lunch and or dinner when we visited from California. Judy's "get up and go" was an inspiration to all of us along with her sense of humor. We will always have happy memories of Judy.

“ Judy and I were best friends until she married and moved away from Hartsville. We were together all the time and enjoyed many happy times together. I lost touch with Judy after I married and moved away and have thought about her many times during the years.

My heart is saddened to learn of her death.##imported-begin##Juanita Gibson Melton##imported-end##
