Best memory, all of the kids in the neighborhood getting in line to take turns riding motorcycles around the block with mr & mrs Batchelor. Daddy would only let me ride with the Batchelors. He will be missed! We had good times.

“ Joyce, Monty, Richard, Gregory & family - My heart aches for all of you. The Batchelor family has meant so much to Dwayne, Darren & me through the years. I cherish the times Joyce & I played piano in her home, with Julian listening to us chattering. Every once in a while, he'd shake his head as if to say, "those two - what am I going to do with them?" Joyce, thank you (and Julian) for being a positive influence on my sons. Both of them admire and love you and your entire family. We couldn't have asked for better neighbors and friends. So sorry I couldn't be there today. If it had been possible, you know I would have been. I will continue to lift all of you in my prayers. I know the future looks uncertain right now. You're hurting and weary from the struggles of the last few years. The God we serve is a loving, compassionate Father & He will be there for you whenever you need Him. I love each of you dearly.
