“ Julie was a beautiful soul encased within a frame of humility. We went to church together at Hartsville COGOP for years. She was the Sunday School teacher for the young married couples. I will never forget one where she taught on obeying the laws of the land which involved a simple gum wrapper. We still attend church together at Faith Holiness, and she loved church. Sweet friend your struggles are over and you are free to soar in the portals of glory. You are loved and you will be missed💕💕

“ Jim and Tim. Always loved your mother from the first time I met her at Church. I used to love to listen to her play the guitar and sing. She was a true saint of God. She has her wings now. Prayers for you all. Love Sara.
