“ Verne and I go back a very, very long way as cousins putting many barefoot prints in the sand as we ran back and forth between the old home place and Uncle Dall's and Aunt Leathea's . And oh the joy of Sand Spurs. Those were the wonderful and good days that America will probably never see again and we were two children that enjoyed them to the fullest. Verne was a great friend and wonderful cousin and I know that he is now enjoying his time with the LORD and all our Family.
