I am sorry to hear about Mr. Smith's passing. His son , Miller, was one of my best friends since I met him in middle soccer and played on his soccer team. Miller was one of the few boys of the team that stood up for me being the only girl. Miller's character was influenced from good parents. I still think of Miller often , not many like him. He looked so much like his dad. So sorry for your loss he was a good man. - Billie Roling -(Billie Jo Teal)

“ Karl was a class act and a darned good lawyer. I first met him in a weird family court case we had together in Horry County. Talk about a strange set of facts! We were able to resolve the case on a temporary basis, but poor Karl had to meet me at a Walgreens parking lot with his wife in the car as they were starting a beach vacation that day. He and I sent each other referrals ever since that case. I was always impressed with his kindness, his professionalism, and his sense of humor. He was an asset to the legal community and will be dearly missed. Younger lawyers should aspire to be kind of lawyer Karl was - integrity +. I hope his family knows and understands just how much Karl was liked and respected by the legal community,

“ I feel led to make this post. It’s a necessary thing for me to do. Hartsville attorney Karl Smith, as most of my local Darlington County friends know, suddenly passed away Sunday.

For most of the years of my early life, he and my father were constant companions. Golfing, attending University of SC events and football games, family beach trips, on and on. In the worst parts of my addiction to alcohol, all 14 or so years ago now, Karl was there for my family and me to help me and them when I didn’t want to help myself with the clutter of my drunken derelict ways that usually and routinely caused me legal issues; I had so many legal problems at a time from bad choices while drunk, DUIs and the whole addiction quagmire, that it was often overwhelming. Karl was always there.

Ten years ago, when I went to rehab for a year, every week for 52 weeks, I got a 3 page handwritten letter on 8 1/2 by 11 yellow legal pad paper from Karl, encouraging me with many biblical references. He truly helped me get to today.

Anytime I have seen Karl and his wife, JoAnn, out somewhere, I have purposely thanked him, and thanked Karl purposely in front of his wife, for all he did to get me to today. This has been a constant ritual for more than a decade. He was a true Good Samaritan in my life when I felt my Lord was Lord Calvert, and not the Lord Jesus Christ.

Four weeks ago, I had the pleasure of filling the pulpit at his beloved Hartsville church, The Church of God of the Reformation. I was one of a series of speakers, me as a seminary student, that was arranged to speak as his church, which was in pastoral transition, waiting on a new pastor to begin. Karl introduced me to his congregation, and my dad and JoaAnn Smith were among those in the church, along with Carl Pennington, another huge supporter of mine and my family.

I am so grateful God had me at Karl's church 4 weeks ago. Joann and Karl were in tears after my remarks. I'd have hated to have missed seeing Karl and my dad embrace after the service as brothers would. It was a real living sermon for me to see that, and I will remember it the rest of my days. Life is fast. We need to thank people while we can.

Thank the Lord for the Karls in our lives, that care enough to help us get out of the miry pits some of us fall into. Karl was a real ambassador for the Lord. Karl Helped me get to today, to my wife, and to seminary.

His entire family, especially his wife, JoAnn, are in my prayers this evening. Many loved him more, and were perhaps closer to him than me, but Karl had my back, and I will miss him. This is a huge loss for my county.

“ I remember when the girls were around 1 and 3y, someone had given them clemson cheerleaders outfits. I remember Karl saying to me, I bet carolina colors would look better on the girls. Nina later went into USC kindergarten and had all the USC bows and colors. You bet she wore em proud, Karl! We will miss you!
