

Mrs. Katherine Shoemake Dixon

May 16, 1937 - March 11, 2016

Funeral services for Katherine Shoemake Dixon, 78, will be held at 3:00 pm Sunday, March 13, 2016 at First Church of God. The Rev. John Kakish will officiate with burial in Magnolia Cemetery. The family will receive friends from 4:00 pm - 6:00 pm on Saturday at Brown-Pennington-Atkins Funeral Home.

Mrs. Dixon died Friday, March 11, 2016. Born in Hartsville, SC, she was a daughter of the late Melvin William and Molly Perdue Shoemake. Katherine loved the Lord and participated in her church's activities. For thirty years, she worked third shift and still raised four children. She was happiest whenever she had her family surrounding her. No matter her physical condition, she prepared her home and table so that guests were warmly welcomed. Being in her presence, one felt unconditionally accepted. She would listen if you needed a sympathetic ear: "That's alright. Things will get better." Words of comfort flowed easily from her lips. Never a harsh word or unkind utterance, only encouragement and a word of hope would she share. Simply stated, she was the embodiment of perfect love and devotion, an example by which we all should live.

Surviving are her daughters, Abbie Gail (Edward Dixon) Thompson of Hartsville, SC, Joyce Dale (Johnny) Truett of Hartsville, SC; sons, Doug (Vickie) McElveen of Sanford, NC, Frank (Denise) Dixon of Hartsville, SC; sisters, Joyce Faye (Rusty) Thompson of Rock Hill, SC, Edna McElveen of Sanford, NC, Bessie Rae Dixon of Hartsville, SC; grandchildren, Michelle (Lawrence) Jenkins, Mark (Dionne) Thompson, Katelynne Thompson, Kyle McElveen, Kevin McElveen, Travis (Stephanie) Truett, Justin (Jamie) Truett, Sam (Jessie) Truett; twenty great-grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her husband, John "Bruce" Dixon; grandson, John Dixon.

“ I wish I would have been able to attend the service for "Mema"! She was always very friendly and accommodating. She treated us as her family as one of her own. I am sure she is receiving numerous blessings for her goodness as she progresses to the next step in this eternal plan. You will be missed "Mema" but you will never be forgotten. God be with your family and give them peace within their souls to know you are once again with others that have gone before.

So sorry we were out of town this week-end & could not be there at the funeral. I just wanted to say that "Kathrine" was one of those people who" let her light shine all the time". We always loved being around her at family functions and when we saw her other places. She will be Greatly Missed. Our prayers go out to the whole family. Cindy & Tony
