“ Dear Beth and Family,
As one of the St. Luke folks who visited Morningside through the year's, I loved your Mother. We had many visits. I will always remember how beautiful she looked. She always welcomed prayer. Many times during singing, she would have her eyes closed but she would be saying the words to every hymn. She was a blessing to me and a gift to everyone at Morningside. She always gave credit to "the girls" for her attractive clothes in many beautiful colors.

“ Beth,
Those of us from St. Luke who shared with your mom on Wednesdays through the years loved her and really enjoyed her sharing her memories and experiences with us. She spoke of loving to dance among other things. She showed great courage as the years took their toll on her but I will always remember her with a smile.
