“ I to have many childhood memories of Kenny. We all worked summers in the tobacco fields together and Kenny was always doing something to make us laugh or squeel in terror of the worms he tried to put on us. I remember playing baseball in the pasture beside Robin Galloway's house, the laughter everywhere. A lifetime ago, yet it seems now like it was yesterday.

Accept joy and laughter whenever possible for there are no guaranties of tomorrow. Kenny had dreams and I hope they all came true.

To all of the family, please accept my condolences and thank you for sharing him with us.##imported-begin##Gale Grantham##imported-end##
