Kennzie Lee this is your mommy and I miss you so much baby girl I wish I could have you back in my belly or arms but heaven is your new home, I know your in a better place and having the time of your life playing on heavens playground and make all new friends with the other angel babies. I know your watching over mommy and daddy keeping us safe, even tho I only got to hold you in my arms for a moment I will hold you in my heart forever. You were everything me and your daddy ever wanted you look just like him. So beautiful and little I wish I would have brought you into this world the way I had planned but God needed you more which is something I would never come to understand but I cant questions what he does he only takes the best, and for sure you are the best thing that has ever happened to us. Just know even tho this is very hard to go though im staying as strong as I can for you baby girl. Mommy and daddy and the rest of the family miss you and love you so much keep a place in heaven for us I will see you again Kennzie one day. Fly high beautiful mommy loves you more anything
