“ To the Glasscock family: I am sorry to hear about your loss. Larry and I used to live in the same neighborhood and we played together and were close friends. I was thinking about him recently, wondering why I was not seeing him in Ruth's Drive In anymore. He had a great sense of humor as a youngster and he loved the dalmatian dog he and his parents owned. I know you folks will gretly miss him, but cherish the good memories and be glad he is out of his suffering now.

“ I met Larry in 1984 and we not only did business together, but hunted together, ate out together & even went to a Rollong Stones concert. From the moment we met, we became friends knowing that both of us had the other ones back in a time of need. My heart pours out to the Glasscock family in this time of need. However, we all know that Larry is in a better place and until we see each other again, I love you buddy and all that you did and stood for.
