“ Larry was very special to me. When I came home from Jacksonville, He stopped by the house one day and I had purchased 3 grape vines. I did not have the breath to set them out, so he sat them out for me. They produced about a bushel every year each and I gave everyone grapes to can. Then when I would see Larry & his family at Halls, I realized just how important cousins, family and friends meant to me.
I love all of you. May GOD give you the family love, comfort and reason to go on. Your cousin, Emma Marilyn Keesha, Kressee, Chap , grandchildren and other family members, Larry will be greatly missed. There aren't words with which to express the heart break & sadness at this time & only with God's grace will the hours, days, months and years to come will the sadness ease, but never go away. One doesn't get over the death of a loved ne, but learns to get through each day. Larry lived his family and the one earthly love of his life was his wife, Marilyn.. Love & prayers for you. Rest in peace Nephew, I'll see you again.

“ So sorry to hear of Larry's passing. I remember when William Smothers nicknamed his Megabucks after he did so well in a BassMasters tournament. That nickname stuck and he was always known by that name. Larry was a great guy and a heck of a good fisherman. Going to miss seeing him at the post office! I know Larry and William are once again fishing together! May God comfort you in His hands and give you strength and understanding during this time!

“ Marilyn, Harry & I are so deeply saddened for you & your family. At times such as these, we can't think of the right words to say. Harry & Larry were such good friends - fishing buddies. I remember when Harry & I got married, we eloped to the beach; went down on Thursday night, got married on Friday & came home so Harry & Larry could go fishing on Saturday! Larry told me later that Harry never mentioned us getting married the day before until they were hooking up the boats to come home! Harry told him, "Oh, by the way, Wayne & I got married yesterday" very matter-of-factly. Larry said he could have strangled Harry for not telling him earlier. I know we didn't see each other very often after Harry had to stop fishing, but I do know that Harry considered Larry one of his closest and dearest friends. We will pray for God to give you strength, peace and comfort that only He can give. We love you.
