Born in San Sebastian, Puerto Rico, he was a son of the late Leon C. Alleyne Sr and Isnoelia Soto Alleyne. Leon was a son, brother, and a Veteran of the United States Navy. He was an uncle, spouse, dad, grandfather and great grandfather. He has many titles and played many roles in his life. He loved going to the movies and going to the beach. He enjoyed singing and keeping up with the latest songs. Leon's life evolved around food, "What better way to bring the family together," He would say. His very favorite were Chinese, his traditional Spanish rice and beans. He had a life-long career in restaurant, hospitality, and seafood, with many stories to tell about his career. Leon's faith in God was strong and had strong family values. We will miss his steady hand and his giving nature.
