“ Let me first start by saying, "It was a pleasure getting to know you". It brings a smile on my face to know that your in a much better place without pain any longer but it saddens me to know that I have now lost a friend that I enjoyed seeing when I came to visit. Thank you for accepting me into your family from the moment we met and I will still be looking foward to you showing up one day on your Harley. You left me with alot of warm memories and laughs. Your always welcomed to our house anytime, so feel free to stop in every now and then if you get bored up there. Love Jeff & Jennifer##imported-begin##Jeffery Pangman##imported-end##

“ I received a message from my dad this morning on my phone

Instead of the customary "Merry Christmas" it was Jennifer he's gone

I know his pain and suffering are over now and he finally left his bed

Why do I feel so selfish for wanting him here with me instead

I know he loved his family and his faithful dog Roscoe

Who would jump in the car and go for a ride everywhere his daddy would go

Don't worry about Louise now she will never have to fend for herself

All she has to do is say the word and any of us will be there to help

Papa I hope I made you proud of me as I was always proud of you

You taught me a little hard work and alot of heart would always see me through

Here I am all all grown up now with a man who adores you and treats me like gold

I hope to one day marry him and the two us hand in hand grow old

Even though I'm sad that your gone now there is a sense of relief

To know that you found grandma in Heaven and together you're watching over me!

I love you Papa and know that you will be greatly missed!!!

Love You Always,

*Your granddaughter
Jennifer*
