“ Mrs. Bailey was one of the Greatest Ladies I have ever known. She was my 5th and 6th grade teacher, the best role model of the strength and dignity of a Christian woman.

She praised me for doing well and good deeds, she scolded me for the opposite...with her quiet presence and control. As I ventured into the educational field (Coker College, her Alma Mater) she was a mentor to me again. Thanks Be To GOD for placing me in the path of

LILY MAE MIMS BAILEY. She was truly one of my Greatest Blessings from GOD. REST WELL, you good and faithful servant to The LORD. ❤️

“ Did not have Mrs. Bailey as a teacher, but went on many trips with her to North Carolina to pick up Mildred Ann to come spend some time with Baileys. Once a man at one of the few stations along the way charged us a nickel to check under the hood. We always had a good time on the trips. My Mother and I would keep Dwain when the Baileys had functions they needed to go to and when Dwain did not want to go home he would grab my hair and pull it and tell me he did not want to go. Mrs. Bailey and I shared some fun times. I have always Loved that sweet Lady and will always carry that love in my heart. Love to all of you children and Grands.

She was always so sweet to me when I behaved, and would pinch the blood out of me if I misbehaved during worship service. Lesson learned because I still remember to this day!
