“ Mema, i miss you a lot. ... Imma miss you being home on the porch when i get off the bus and asking "how was school? and get me a coke." and talking to you bout my problems and boys and going to college. I cant be selfish and have you for myself cause the lord needs you more to do bigger and greater deeds in heaven than you can on earth. Im glad to know that you arent suffering or hurting no more. I know you wouldnt want us worrying or crying over you cause your inna better place and better hands, but watch over us and when i need you the most be here for me like you promise. mema iloveyou and always will im glad your inna better place, happy, moving around and can breathe on your own. I will one day rejoin you in heaven and be never reaperted again.
P.S- imma go to college and make something of myself just for you cause i know that is what you wanted for me.
