“ *I've always known this beautiful and lovely woman as 'Aunt' Linda. The time I spent with her as a child are some of the best memories I have. Is there anyone cooler than her with those huge sunglasses sunbathing like a movie star at Myrtle Beach?

Women like my Aunt Linda are very hard to come by, she was just full of love and I've always hoped I can live up to the standard she set.

My thoughts are with her family and hope you know how much she is dearly loved.

She will be missed, but never forgotten.##imported-begin##Wendy (Dot and Ray's Daughter)##imported-end##

“ Dear Linda, I will always remember the night the Lord sent his angels for you. As Vickie sing, "Come to the Garden. It was all so beautiful, as we watched you peacefully slip away. I could see the softness in your smile as you decended into heaven. I thank the "Lord" for taking care of you as you entered his gate. You will always be in our heart. Love to you,
Peggy and "J"Campbell

This was Momma's favorite time of the year. Christmas always was such a special time for Momma and to be with all of us. This is our first Christmas without her and it is not easy. Every Christmas carol, Christmas TV movie/program, Christmas tree, Christmas food, everything brings back memories of Momma. I know this will be her best Christmas ever, sharing it with everyone in Heaven and being with her Savior, but it is very hard here on earth without her!!
