“ Mommy I'm so lost down here without you. I will always cherish every memory I have with you. You have been my best friend since birth. We have been through everything together. I have listened to your voicemails and watched videos since Jesus gave you your wings just so I can hear your voice. I love you more than I'm able to put into words and I'm so lost without you. I can take comfort in knowing that you knew the only way to the Father was through the son. Mommy I know you have your wings now and you are no longer suffering. You are rejoicing with your mom and dad, your children and grandchildren, Uncle James and so many more. Until we meet again your memory will never die. I love you mommy to the moon and back. Your Princess LaDonna Jean forever I'll be.

Linda, You will be missed greatly. When Bob and I met you and Robert it was like we had known ya'll for a long, long time. God saw you getting tired and decided to take you home. I know that you are now watching over all your loved ones including your 4 legged friends also. You fought a good fight and now it is time to rest. Rest now on that Mountain top. Whenever I think of you I will look up to the sky and I will see you. My condolences to your family.

Robert and Donna Harris
