“ Every time I walked I walked in the door I would hear a hearty, "Hey, kiddo!" When I close my eyes and listen, I can still hear it. Grandpa loved snuggling up in his LSU blanket to watch football and that's just what he was doing the last time I saw him. My last words to him were, "Goodbye Grandpa. I love you."

“ Lin was an amazing husband to my mother. They stood by each other and I have never seen two people love each other so much. He was such a good cook. As a teenager I lived with my mom and Lin for a bit and he would cook all the time. I once told him I was not staying home I was going out with my boyfriend for dinner and beside I don't like fish off the grill. It smelled so good as I was leaving I grabbed a small bite. I then wanted more and he laughed and said no you don't want my fish go eat with your boyfriend. Of course he was joking and I ending up eating his yummy offshore grilled fish. I know grandma boo is so happy to see him in heaven and I'm sure she is giving him a ear full.

“ "Mac" and I are so sorry to hear of Lin's passing. Our deepest sympathy to you Barb and your family. We have great memories of our time work-camping with you guys in San Antonio & Austin. Our first night at San Antonio KOA u guys made us feel so welcomed--chicken spaghetti, campfire, & lots of spirits! The rodeo in San Antonio was so much fun--u guys were the best dancers on the floor!! And our time in Austin was so much fun with David & Ila, Barb & Vern, and Ken & Yolie. Those mandatory employee meetings were so much fun--yeah, right!! Those guys & their closing keys?? We used the heck out of the golf cart u guys sold to us.

Lin was a fun person to hang out with and was a great "cajun" cook & dancer. We feel so Blessed to have known him, he will be missed. May the Good Lord Bless you and Keep you and grant you peace & comfort!! Mac & Kitty McMillin
