“ I am sorry to hear of Linwood's death. I remember playing with him and his flying squirrel when I was a little kid. I moved away from Hartsville at a young age and returned to attend Coker College and he came to visit me a few times there. And then I found him working at Kroger. Our paths crossed many times and I will remember him fondly.##imported-begin##Marilee Wiesen Willis##imported-end##

“ Larry, We were so sorry to read of Lin's death. I remember him as a sweet, always smiling student at HHS. My sister in Columbia used to see him at the grocery store and she would pass along her visits with him to me. She thought he was a dear man.
You and your family will be in our prayers during this sad time.

“ I am sorry to hear about Lin. He was such a gentle man when I knew him in our younger years. As you know, he revered Coach Seigler and still talked about him when I ran into him years later. I also remember, when he served as the Foxes' team manager, Coach had him suit and play on a kick-off. That was special for everyone. Anyway, he was a good man.##imported-begin##Daniel Hucks##imported-end##
