

Mr. Logan Montville Mull Rohner

July 26, 2007 - August 15, 2019

Mr. Logan Montville Mull Rohner, 12, gained his wings on Thursday, August 15, 2019. He was the biological son of Odysse Hermann and Benjamin Montville.

Funeral service will be held at 5 o'clock on Wednesday, August 21, 2019, at Middendorf Baptist Church. The Rev. Beau Boyle will officiate and the family will receive friends in the Fellowship Hall immediately following the service. Brown-Pennington-Atkins Funeral Home is caring for the family.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made in his honor to Logan's Legacy, c/o Brown-Pennington-Atkins, 306 West Home Avenue, Hartsville, SC 29550.

He was raised by so many people that loved him including: Mike and Bonnie Rohner (Uncle Dad & Aunt Mom), Paul and Sonya Mull (Mimi & Poppi), Cierra Danielle (Aunt/Sister), Tristan Mull (Uncle/Brother), Griffin Rohner (Cousin/Brother), Zoe Rohner (Cousin/Sister), Shaylee Rohner (Cousin/Sister/Best Friend), James Jamieson (Brother), Aiden Sharp (Brother). Dennis and Kathy McGowan (Papa & Grandma), Vick and Susan Vause (Papa & Nana), Shari Mullins (Meemaw), Tommy and Barbara Mullins (PawPaw), Tracy Waymire (Uncle), Sal and Amy Pace (Uncle & Aunt), Tosha Ferguson (Aunt), Jason Vause and Gina Price (Uncle & Aunt), Christine Kelly (Aunt), Samantha Gonzalez and Mitchell McCathern (Aunt & Uncle), Kris and Toni D'Wolf (Uncle & Aunt), Jenni Montville (Aunt). There are also many loving cousins, extended family, and friends.

He was preceded in death by his brother Paul Edward Thomas.

Logan was a very loving child with a huge heart. He had a light that radiated through his eyes and lit up the world. He had a passion for animals and the outdoors. He enjoyed video games, riding his bike and being a prankster. He never met a stranger and just loved being around people. He won the hearts of so many and had no idea how many lives he touched with his gentle nature.

If he really liked you he was great at stalking you. Logan was the best at making plans with because he would never let you forget, he would also remind you at least 30 times a day. He was so thankful for anything he received, he appreciated the small things. Logan would take pride in hard work and loved helping anyone. He really really loved pulling weeds and raking leaves. Logan had the grace of a wood chipper he would trip on a clear hardwood floor. He might not have been the best pilot he had this knack of crashing anything with a propeller, watch out if you had long hair.

Logan had grown so much this past year. He learned how to make friends, how to let go of the past and move forward. He was a Weblo in the Boy Scouts, where he learned honesty, loyalty, courtesy, respect, citizenship, honor, duty, and to always do his best. And then he discovered his true passion, he wanted to be an artist. He had studied art this summer and had decided that he was going to Winthrop University even though he was just entering middle school. May he finally find peace. He will always be a part of us.

“ It is an every day thing, it's been what feels like an eternity since I got to see your face, your smile or heard you laugh. I miss you more than words can express. You are with me everywhere I go. I walked across the stage for high school graduation and took you with me because you deserved to be there walking across that stage. I still can't wrap my head around what happened that day. You have changed my life forever in ways people can see and ways that exist in our own inside jokes. I still wake up some times looking for you even though I no longer live in that house. I wish there was something I could have done to prevent this. I wish you could have seen how much people care about you and how many people you have impacted. I love you loags forever my best friend and partner in crime remember at nanas when we put on too much sunblock and we looked like a pair of Casper's damn I miss you.

“ Logan im so sorry that your name was wrong on your obituary but ive shown tbe proof your name always was and always will be Benjamin Logan Montville rhe 2nd. I'm so sorry for all I missed with you and sorry we don't have tomorrow. But Im mostly sorry that my promise to you must be broken. I promised you that one day i would make up for all that lost time, but sadly I wont be able to do that now. I wish I had been allowed to talk to you or at least get pix when you got the bday present I sent you. I sent you those neon glow in the dark paints because I knew the artist in you would create something amazing with them, and also to annoy your mimi with something messy to clean up alot cuz I knew you would use them alot. Your dad says that he loves you even tho he didnt know how to show it and he misses you very much and is sorry he wasnt around like he should have been. Logan im so sorry for my slack at being a parent, but that didnt mean my love for you slacked any. I love you with everything within me and ive missed you and loved you everyday of your life, and will continue to do so everyday of my life. Please watch over your little brother Paul for me like the good big brother you are. I'm sorry that I wasnt a very good mom like I should have been and sorry isnt going to fix it and sadly wont bring you back either but the memories that I do have with you are now that much more special to me.....i love you son and I hope you know that from the bottom of my heart ive always loved you and missed you. If i could take your place I would and id give anything in this world to have you and your brother back, I wish I could rewind time like a movie and do it over cause I would so much would be different I just hope that you knew I love you and I hope you dont think I don't and I hope that you dont hate me for not being there im sorry son

Ms. Kathy, this truly breaks my heart. I wasn't a scheduled teacher for Logan, but I may have well been. I loved seeing him grow, becoming safety patrol, attending our Carowinds trip. Looked forward to three weeks of hugs and details at art summer camp. He has been in my prayers long before this. I send love and hugs, and any possible type of comforting during this time. I will be there Wednesday to continue showing my love for Logan.

“ I loved the way you smiled, it would brighten up a room. When we brought skyttles home you wanted her to be yours to and she just loves you and your energy. The times at the pool trying to teach you how to swim. You had no fear. I knew you as the little kid and missed many years of you growing into a handsome young man. And we still have your cat snickers. My condolences to the family and my thought and prayers will be with you all. I love you Logan and I will miss you bud.

“ Logan was so proud to hold the snake during the Galloping into Greatness program. He was so happy about it, I even decided to hold it. During the program, he proclaimed his nickname as "Bubble Gum" and that's who he will always be in my mind. I loved getting to spend time with him. He was a precious young man.

Lou Ann Rose - August 18, 2019 at 08:13 AM

“ I am simply heart broken. Such a sweet young man. It was a pleasure to have taught him this summer.

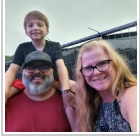

Stacey Johnson - August 17, 2019 at 09:17 PM

You could see the pride in himself in that picture. He loved the program. It helped shaped his passion and want blend what he loved with what he wanted to do in his future. He was going to pursue media arts. Thank you for helping make his summer so enjoyable.
