

Louise Thompson

May 4, 1918 - August 17, 2007

Services for Louise Morgan Thompson, 89, will be held on Monday, August 20 at 12:00 noon at the First Baptist Church Chapel. The Rev. Ryan Goodroe and the Rev. Dr. Bill West will officiate with burial in Magnolia Cemetery. The family will receive friends on Sunday, August 19 from 5-7 p.m. at the home of her daughter and son-in-law, Walt and Susan Harvey, 113 Erwin Rd. Brown-Pennington-Atkins Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

Mrs. Thompson, widow of Fred Allen Thompson, died August 17 in Hartsville. Born in Rockmart, GA., she was the daughter of the late Lonnie Lewis Morgan and Lucille Russell Morgan. She graduated from Georgia State College for Women. She was a former school teacher, Girl Scout Leader, Sunday School teacher, G.A. leader, Hospital Auxiliary volunteer, and was an active member of the First Baptist Church and many other civic organizations. Her interest in antiques lead to the creation of her shop, "Forget Me Not Antiques" in Hartsville. She also expressed her creativity through her love of flowers and crafts. These loves were instilled in her children, grandchildren, and great grandchildren and continue today.

She is survived by her three daughters and sons-in-law, Patsy and Bill Connell of Hartsville, Susan and Walt Harvey of Hartsville and Nancy and Gary Walsh of Columbia; five granddaughters, Lisbeth and Charlie Kelly, Leigh and Kevin Addis, Mary Beth and Jeff Klinar, Amy and Malcolm Arnold, and Rebecca and Phil Coleman; and one grandson, Grady and Candice Walsh. She was the proud "Great Mom" to 5 great grandchildren, Harrison and Anna Kelly, Caroline and Cameron Addis, and Addison Arnold. She is also survived by a sister, Mary Alice Isbell, of Cedartown, Ga. She was predeceased by a sister, Betty Ann Casey, and a brother, Lonnie Lewis Morgan, Jr.

Pall bearers will be her grandson and grandsons-in-law. Memorials may be made to First Baptist Church, Hartsville, S.C.

“ I met Ms. Thompson when she operated the Forget Me Not Antiques store. I would visit my family in Hartsville two or three times a year and always stopped in to say hello and buy something.

Ms. Thompson was a fine lady with a keen sense of humor and style. She had an eye for beautiful antiques and, unknown to people without the experience and training, she had some extraordinary treasures. Ms. Thompson was a true connoisseur fine art and furniture. She will be truly missed.

“ Susan, Walt and family,
I am thinking of you today as you go through this difficult time. I never knew Mrs. Thompson, but as I read about her I already see her lasting influence and presence in the beautiful landscape of your gardens. She truly left a lasting impression on God's earth in many ways. I see now where your love of plant life comes from. My thoughts are with your family.##imported-begin##Gail Bowen##imported-end##

“ Dear Nancy,

Condolences to you and your family. We pray that you will look to the Lord to draw upon His strength, grace, mercy, and comfort. Death is a separation and it does have its' sorrows but for the Christian it will pass as this is temporary and all who trust Christ for their salvation will be joined together for eternity with God. Psalm 116: 15 says, " Precious in the sight of the LORD Is the death of His saints" for He is the Resurrection and the Life. May the Lord comfort and bless you and your family.##imported-begin##Clark and Ethel Greene##imported-end##

“ Dear Nancy...I'm at a loss for words at times like this, but God's Word is always timely. Psalm 103:17-18 says, "But the lovingkindness of the Lord is from everlasting to everlasting, to those who reverence Him; His salvation is to children's children of those who are faithful to His covenant and remember to obey Him." These verses seem to describe your mother. She was faithful to her covenant with Him, and the evidence is in the lovingkindness of God that is so clear in your life. I didn't know your mother, but I thank God tonight for her life and legacy....Randy##imported-begin##Randy Hurtt##imported-end##

“ Dear Nancy,

I know that as hard as this is it is also a happy time knowing that your Mother has stepped to the other side, out of her pain and into the Presence of Jesus. She will be missed I am sure, and sweet loving memories will sustain you as well as the Holy Spirit's presence in your life.

Take comfort in knowing that your dear Mother is not only in your past, but now in your future - waiting and rejoicing.

*Holding you and your family in my prayers,
