“ Bless you all, you had such a great Mom. I remember Mrs. Boan from when I was a little girl and we used to go visit you guys at the egg farm. And moreover when she would come to my house to babysit my then toddler while I worked on Mondays. That was at least eighteen years ago and my daughter couldn't say Mrs. Boan, she just called her "Boan". The sitter I had before her let the house get demolished and I spent the whole next day cleaning up. Not your Mom, whenever I would get home, the house was spotless and not so much as a sippy cup was dirty in the sink. She was a firm but fair and very sweet lady! I had run into her a couple times in Hartsville over the years and she always remembered me. My daughter didn't really remember her, but always remembered the name "Boan". God bless you all. In loving memory, Mindy, Al, and family###imported-begin##Mindy S. James###imported-end##
