“ Dear Perkinson Family,
Our hearts are so heavy for you all. As we sat with you at the hospital, we couldn't help but feel drawn to all of you because in the midst of your crisis, you made us feel like family. With any large family, there tends to be so many varied thoughts and opinions on how this or that is done but watching you all the other night convinced us that your parents have done a wonderful job in raising you all. We were amazed at how well you came together, kids and grandkids, to support one another and to ensure your Mom and Granny left this world for her Heavenly home without any negative vibe whatsoever. There are many other large families we've known over the years but none have shown what you all showed to us the other night. You are all blessed to have each other and we hope as time passes, you all will be even closer and nothing will ever take away the love and mutual respect your family has for each other. We love you all and will continue praying for you in the days ahead.
Love,

The last time I saw her she wanted us to try & figure out how to get my parents back out there beside her I can still see her laughing about that. We have pics of her holding Kayla the day we brought her home that always made me smile & I will treasure them always. I thank God for the privilege to have known her & your family.
