“ Paula, Betsy & Ceil,
Your Mother was a friend to many.
She was always so supportive of me as I served as the Anchor Club faculty advisor at HHS. She will be missed by many.
My thoughts & prayers are with you all.##imported-begin##Madge

“ Paula, Betsy and Ceil---I live in Augusta, Georgia now, and read The Messenger online daily. I was so sorry to read of your Mom's death. Memories are wonderful things, and I'm sure that you have many of them. It's been a long time since the days of Thomas Hart.
Sometimes, I just wish that we could just press a button and we'd be right back to those days. We just didn't realize how carefree our lives were then. I will be praying for all of you. ---Sarah O'Neal

“ I love you all. I don't know what to say except for what is in my heart... You know you are like sisters to me and your mother was always like a second mother. There are a few things that I know for sure in the this world... your mother was a good & caring person and she loved and was very proud of each of you! I had another bond with her after the birth of Ben & Glenn, her Grand-God Twins, in addition to her being the mother of my "BESTEST" friend. I know your mother still grieved for the untimely loss of your father, he was still so young when you all lost him. I bet that Harry was ready and waiting in his dress uniform (like the photo of them in "my" room at the "Love Bed & Breakfast" in Atlanta) to take her hand and dance throughout eternity together.
