

Mrs. Lynn McElveen Boatwright

October 1, 1968 - January 24, 2018

Funeral service for Mrs. Lynn McElveen Boatwright, 49, who entered into rest on Wednesday, January 24, 2018, will be conducted at 3 o'clock on Sunday, January 28, 2018, from West Hartsville Baptist Church. The Rev. Jimmy Beck and The Rev. Dr. Kevin Walters will officiate. A private family burial will be held. The family will receive friends on Saturday, January 27, 2018, from 4:00 until 6:00 PM at Prestwood Country Club, 534 Prestwood Drive, Hartsville, SC. Brown-Pennington-Atkins Funeral Home is serving the family.

Memorials may be made in her honor to The Darlington County Humane Society, P.O. Box 1655, Hartsville, SC 29551, or One Church Hartsville, Attn: Admin, 209 North Fifth Street, Hartsville, SC 29550.

Lynn was a passionate, courageous, determined, caring and outstanding human being. She shared a love for music by participating in concert choir for Hartsville High School, The University of South Carolina, Hartsville Community Chorus, and the praise band at the Church of the Cross in Bluffton, SC. She had a love for animals, Gamecock football and Jesus, her Lord, and Savior.

Her experience as a cheerleader in high school carried through her adult life as she was a constant source of support and encouragement for those around her. She was a 1986 graduate of Hartsville High School, attending the University of South Carolina and graduating from Francis Marion University with a BA degree in Education.

Lynn began her career as a bank teller on Hilton Head Island and was currently working as a personal banker at First Citizens Bank in Hartsville. For many years she taught school in the Elementary, Middle, and Alternative Schools in Hartsville, Beaufort and on Hilton Head Island. Lynn never met a stranger, was a friend to all spreading light to everyone she encountered.

She is survived by her daughter, Mari Pennington Boatwright of Hartsville, SC; mother, Kaye Pennington McElveen of Hartsville, SC; father Thomas Lide (Sandra) McElveen, Jr. of Columbia, SC; sister, Mari Kaye McElveen (David) Haney of Florence, SC; stepsister, Ashley Kay Price of Columbia, SC; aunt, Pam Pennington Yarbrough of Hartsville, SC; uncle, Leon C. (Michele) Pennington, Jr. of Beaufort, SC; nephews, Josh Haney, Charlie Mayo; Mari Penn's father, Phillip Boatwright; Fur Babies, Oreo and Cheeto.

“ Dear Lynn, It's me! Denice Nichols. We met on June 15th, late afternoon. Remember? "D-e-n-l-c-e, as in De-nice with a "C". "As in nice." "Others tell me I am nice." Nervously, those words spilled out quickly. "I am babysitting today and I haven't seen Cameron in over a year." "I'm just hyper by nature." "Banking makes me nervous." It shall not be the exemplariness of your financial services that remains in my mind. The warmth, kindness and genuineness of your caring nature will remain in my heart. Quickly, we developed a special friendship. Do you recall our walk outside in the rain to the teller machine? I do. I asked, "Can we be friends?" "Of course we can." "We are friends." Do you remember the Thank you card which you sent me in October? I do. The card by "your Sister-in-Christ". Do you remember exchanging cell phone numbers? I do. I am sorry that we did not "get a cup of coffee". I just want you to know that I will celebrate your big 50 with a large caramel mocha, double shot, skim milk, no whip cream. I will top your special day with a hot fudge cake from Shoney's. Most definitely, we share the love of chocolate.

“ Mrs. Lynn was a pleasant addition to First Citizens Bank. She was beautiful inside & out. She will never know how much I appreciated her welcoming me to bank with them once I decided to relocate my account & she went above & beyond to make me feel like I'd been there for a lifetime. It's not every day that we have such a genuine soul to enrich our lives but Mrs. Lynn did that to every one she encountered both on a business and personal level.

“ "Ms. McElveen" was my first grade teacher! I still remember going into her classroom and her making me feel safe and loved. I saw her a couple of years ago and she was the same person that she's always been. She spoke so kindly of her daughter, Penn! You could see the love that she had for her in her eyes. Sending many prayers up for your family during this difficult time.

“ Lynn has been a very special person in my life since we met in college 30 years ago. She was amazing, loving, and generous. Lynn never met a stranger. She would embrace you from the moment she met you, put you at ease, and more likely than not, have you laughing soon thereafter. She was very bright and would keep you on your toes. Her spirit and love for life were contagious. She always put others first and her love for God and her family were boundless. I am so incredibly fortunate to have shared part of my life with her and will forever cherish each and every one of those precious moments. She enriched my life far more than I did hers. While my heart is broken, I am reminded of all the good she did and the many lives that she touched.

“ Kaye and Phil, so sorry to hear of your loss, thinking of you, Kimrey, Ann Marie and Will Pennington.

Ann Pennington - January 25, 2018 at 03:18 PM

“ Dear Kaye, Tommy, Mari Penn, Mari Kaye and other family members and loved ones:

This past October, not long before Halloween, I had dinner with Lynn. We had gotten together a lot when she first moved back to Hartsville from Beaufort in 2015, but we both had gotten "too busy" in the last year or so, and we had done very little together. So, I stopped by her bank one October evening before closing time and suggested that we go "break bread together" at Shoney's, where we usually went in the past. (She loved the hot fudge cakes there.)

During our conversation, Lynn said she realized the we were both on the verge of entering the autumn of our lives. We laughed, I think, about that. Initially this made me feel sad, as I sometimes fear the passing of time and the thought of death, even though I treasure my salvation. I am human. I still have fear. The reality is that a substantial chunk of my life is behind me now.

But this morning, after I had learned of her passing late Wednesday night, I was looking out of my den window at the glorious display of the hearty green Magnolia leaves in the tree in my front yard. The sun highlighted the leaves as birds and squirrels paraded about and I was reminded that autumn and winter are my favorite seasons. It's a time for slowing down and gathering in. I am spellbound by the beauty of God's plan for the cycle of nature and the seasons of life. So I will try to be at peace in this early autumn of my life. It is a beautiful season, with a colorful mix of joy and sadness.

God still has work for us to do, so we can slow down, sit quietly, and listen for guidance. We can trust in God's perfect timing and assurance to be with us in our fears. We can find comfort in God's promise of eternal life through Jesus Christ.

Lynn McElveen Boatright helped me through some tough times. She was a far better friend to me, than I was to her. I take comfort today knowing that she is with the Lord, where I yearn to be in His time, too. Many people were closer to Lynn, but she had my back and I had hers. That is a fact.

God is with us during all the seasons of our lives.

You all are loved. Know that. I do hope that my words, lovingly offered, give you some comfort. She was loved by me all the way.

Peace.
