“ THE ROSE

*When i was a little girl
Mama would sit me on her knee;
She'd tell t he story of the rose
As I listened, carefully.*

*The root is the anchor, child
It holds the bush up straight;
Limbs spread out, as they grow strong
Little buds appear and wait.*

*Rain, sunshine, with tender care
Beauty unfolds for all to see;
But be cautious of the thorns
That's how our lives should be.*

*Jesus is our anchor, child
He holds us in his hand;
His love spreads out to all the world.
Please try to understand.*

*Spread the sunshine of his love
Traveling down life's road;
Temptations are the thorns of life
Hold firm, withstand, as the rose.*

This was written by my mother MABLE ROSE JOHNSON whom i will always love and cherish.

“ *A Mother's Love is something that no one can explain, It is made of deep devotion and of sacrifice and pain, It is endless and unselfish and enduring come what may For nothing can destroy it or take that love away... It is patient and forgiving when all others are forsaking, a many-splendored miracle man cannot understand And another wondrous evidence of God's tender guiding hand. Love you Mable L Bryd. “ Joe, was at the beach again last weekend until Sunday night. Did't hear of your grandmother's passing until I came to work this morning. My deepest sympathy to you and your family. Had I known I would have gone to the visitation last night. I remember meeting your Mother and would like to have met your Dad also. Alzhiemers is such a terrible disease. I pray God will bless you and your family through this loss. Fondly,
