I am so sorry to hear of your loss. Your Mom was so sweet and truly a saint on this earth. I know how much you will miss her. I will be praying for you and your family , that God will give you grace to bear this difficult time. Mrs. Mae probably already has all the saints to laughing and smiling by now! She had a knack for that! I know many will feel her absence, but her influence will live on.

So sorry to hear about Aunt Mae. She was a very special person and we loved her smile. Her passing brings back great memories of growing up and visiting with her family. Glad to see she has a wonderful family there to keep her memory alive. The Hilderbrands in Clemson are doing fine. Love you all. Van and Diane Hilderbrand and family.

Aunt Mae Lovelace Hilderbrand was one of my dearest relatives. After my mother passed away, she was about the closest person I had for a replacement mother. She was one of the sweetest and most understanding people I'd ever met, and she was always willing to help anyone she could. I'll forever miss the twinkle in her eyes, and the warm smile on her lips. My heart goes out to Grace and Kevin, and may the Lord support and guide them, in their darkest hour. I know that Aunt Mae is with her Jesus now, along with Uncle Oblee, and my mom and dad. She was a one in a million person, and I'm sure she will be cherished in Heaven. I'll love her always, and pray I'll see her again one day.
