“ Dear Family of Maggie,
I was so saddened to hear of Maggie's death. I was in North Carolina and could not get back in time for the funeral. Maggie brought a ray of sunshine in any room or group. She was a blessed part of our Prayer Shawl Group at St. Luke. Words seem so inadequate to speak of her wonderfulness.
With Prayers,

“ Thank you all for your prayers and support!!! Maggie is my mother-in-law but was nothing shy of a mother to me! She has been a blessing in my life for 12 yrs and she will missed greatly! I will always cherish her hugs and smiles. She has always welcomed me with open arms. The day the cancer showed it's ugly face in her life, she was determined to fight! Maggie loved her entire family and during all of this I have seen many people she has touched during her lifetime. She cherished her children and grandchildren. Ainsley and Jase will always know that Omi loved them very much and she will never be forgotten!! Love to all...##imported-begin##Casey Milbee##imported-end##
