She was preceded in death by her son, Lenard Devon Campbell.

Tribute Wall

“ To the Family: Ms. Maggie was always a loving and a remarkable Christian woman that loved her family. I got to know her when my oldest daughter, Jessica went to Twitty Church Daycare. Through the years I lost keeping in touch til I met her son Lavon that was friends with my husband, Chris. She has touched alot of lives through her years and I know that she is one of God's Angels that is looking down on us smiling and rejoicing. We will keep you all in our prayers.##imported-begin##Rhonda Jones Norton and Family##imported-end##

“ Miss Maggie kept me as a little girl over 30 years ago at Twitty Daycare and I had the pleasure of getting reacquainted with her just a couple of years ago. I could not believe that after less than five minutes of speaking with her at my office.. she looked at me and called me by name. I knew who she was immediately but never dreamed she would remember me and my name from Twitty that long ago. I could still feel that nurturing from her as we talked. She recalled some mischievous things that I had done as a child that I had a hard time remembering. A very special lady that has touch so many lives. I know you will be missed dearly. So thankful that I got to know you again. What a special person!###imported-begin##Elliott Ingram Walden###imported-end##

“ We were so sad to have learned of Ms Maggie's passing. It seems that I have known her most of my life. She and my mother worked together for many years at the Cotton Mill where they became close friends. Later when Ms Maggie ran the daycare at Twitty, my oldest daughter was there with her for many years. My fondest memory of Ms Maggie was her and my mother (along with Ms Lillian Wilkes)taking a clogging class at the old Lawton Park building. They had such a good time and even participated in a recital. They were not spring chickens at the time, but they laughed and had the best time. She was a very special lady who touched many people, and she will surely be missed.###imported-begin##Jean and William Gullede###imported-end##

“ To The Family, We are so sorry for your loss. Ms. Maggie will be deeply missed by all. She was such a sweet and kind person. After my mother could no longer go to church, she would often call. It would bring the biggest smile to mom,s face. I will always remember her singing songs of angels with the choir at Twitty Church. She was always one of the first to welcome you to church on Sunday with a smile and a hug. My prayers are with you during this time.##imported-begin##Matt, Sylvia And Carson Ward##imported-end##

“ I've very sorry to hear about Ms. Maggie. She used to keep me at the nursery when I was a little girl. As I grew up I'd run into her around town she always knew who I was and would always give me a hug. Ms. Maggie later became an adopted member of my family. She was a special friend to Papa Johnson. I'll always remember her smile and kindness!!!##imported-begin##April J. Sherrill##imported-end##
