“ I am so sorry to hear this. Margaret Ann was one of my first friends while working at the bank many years ago. She kept dimes and nickels in a cup because I always came up or over at the teller window where we worked together. She could hardly see above the counter top. I would get so tickled at her. She always made me laugh. I loved her very much and love her family very much. She will be missed. You are in my prayers during this time. Love you all.
