“ Roy, you and Margaret had a very special bond that was made in heaven. I do remember my mother, Vi Ballard, rejoicing to me over your marriage to each other. She thought it was wonderful that you found each other. Well, she was in the same high school class with Margaret, Christine Gibson, Michael Powell's mother, and so many others I knew. Lee Manning Wiggins was the valedictorian of that special class of 1936. My mother was supposed to be the salutatorian. One day, mother sneaked out of school during recess to smoke on the grounds. Helen Baker, Dean of Girls, caught mother when she looked out her window. She punished mother by removing her as salutatorian. I understand that Lee Manning beat mother out for valedictorian by scant tenths of points. Margaret took Mom's place. I think that led to a special relationship between mother and Margaret for Mom always admired the entire McCall family and loved all of you, as I do also. She accepted the change gracefully as a good sport, and Margaret, I am sure, did a great job, as she did in everything she attempted in her life. She was always so sweet and kind to me and seemed to be genuinely interested in my life and what I was doing. She will be missed by so many friends and family.

“ Dearest Roy, the last time we spoke was at Mrs. Babb's funeral. It was drizzling rain and after a lengthy conversation, I offered you a ride to your truck. You said, "thanks, but no. I need the exercise". Your truck was parked about as far away as it could have been! I say all that to say this. You have been such an inspiration to so many people, many who have stood in the shadows, quietly observing. To know you and Margaret and to witness the love you two had for each other and The Lord has truly been such a blessing in my life and those standing in the shadows. My deepest felt condolences are sent to you at this closing of a chapter in your life. May you feel my love and that of all of us whose lives you two impacted...for the better.

In Christ's love,

It was a pleasure to know Margaret. She taught our sons in Sunday School and left a grand impression on them. They all remember her. Vacation plans will keep us from attending visitation or memorial services for her. You will be in our thoughts and prayers. Heaven has a new treasure.

“ Mr. Roy & family, our prayers are with you all. Please know that you can call on us at any time. We pray God's blessings upon you. Hold on to the memories. We love you.

In our times of loss, we can sometimes find ourselves overwhelmed with feelings of confusion and sorrow. Hopelessness and despair may well up in our hearts, and it can seem as though comfort is beyond our reach, but as Jesus Christ tells us, “Blessed are they that mourn: for they shall be comforted.” (Matthew 5:4)
