“ Mrs.Margie was my best friend & also felt like my second mother to me. She was there when i lost my moma & 2 brothers, I wish she was her now to help me through this hard life that im living. I greatly miss her in my heart & love her & i wish she were here today.But people dont live forever & dont ever take people for granted. :-(

“ This is a very special lady. I remember my father always picking at her (when he was living) she would put him in his place. My mother and Mrs. Margie would laugh at him. When I seen her after he passed it always brought good times to mind. She will be really missed. Our prayers are with you. Mary Gandy, James Gandy, Wilson Gandy and Ann Gandy Boone

“ 15 years ago I walked into your life as a teenager in love with your grandson. From day one you became my grandmother. I will always cherish the memories I have of me, you, and Garrison taking off to the Goodwill. Who new we could get so excited about other people's junk? You have been an important part of all our lives for so long. You were truly a special lady...full of love, but strong-willed. A survivor! In the past 3 years I have lost a grandmother every year, including you. Your memory and spirit will live on through Garrison, Arleigh, and our new baby boy. WE WILL NEVER FORGET!!! We love, Margie!
