“ Cynthia, please accept my sincere condolences on the death of your mother. I heard our preacher say at a recent funeral that we should not say "the loss" of someone because our loved ones are now in the presence of their Savior and with their loved ones gone before. That has helped me with dealing with Daddy's death more than anything because I know where he is. Knowing your mother is with Jesus and those gone before her I hope is a comfort to you and your family.

Weet was a special lady. Whin I picture her it is at the house on hwy 15. i spent many a day there enjoying the companionship. We had some good times there. I lost Mama in 1995 so I know what a difficult time this is for Y;all. May you endure and remain strong this time of adjustment.

“ Cynthia, your mother was such a sweet person. I remember seeing her in the grocery store and she was always so neat. We would always stop and talk. She would tell me "Don't tell Cynthia" if she was buying something she wasn't suppose to have. She was truly a lady. I know how hard this us for you and Debbie. Knowing that she is no longer suffering and is at peace should help comfort you. We love you, Beth and Ronnie
