

Marie DuBose

April 10, 2007

Marie King DuBose, 89, loving wife and mother, “Ree” DuBose, long time resident of Litchfield Country Club and the Lakes at Litchfield, died at The Lakes at Litchfield on April 10, 2007.

Born December 13, 1917, in Shelby, North Carolina, she was the daughter of William Thomas and Evelyn Lineberger King.

Mrs. DuBose graduated salutatorian from Shelby High School and attended North Carolina State Women’s College in Greensboro where she studied business and accounting.

She served faithfully as a Methodist minister’s wife to the late Dr. Robert Newsome DuBose and enjoyed her role as mother, grandmother, and homemaker. She loved her family, her friends, and their many Boston Terriers. She is survived by her two daughters, Mary Virginia DuBose of Litchfield Beach and Barbara DuBose Terry and her husband Mike of Greenville, SC. She has three grandchildren – Ashley DuBose Derrick of Atlanta, Michael Terry and his wife Shirley, and Melissa DuBose Blackwell and her husband Chris, all from Greenville, SC. She also has two great grandchildren, Lori and Lane of Greenville.

Brown- Pennington-Atkins Funeral Home, 306 West Home Avenue, Hartsville, SC 29550, will be in charge of the arrangements. A Graveside service will be held on Friday, April 13, at 2:00 PM at Cypress Cemetery, Hartsville, SC.

Memorials may be made to Sacred Vision Animal Sanctuary, 3701–A Forestbrook Road, Myrtle Beach, SC, 29588.

“ Dear Mary Ginny, Barbara and all the Dubose family, We are so sorry to learn of your Mother. We cannot believe that Ree is now with Bob, but we know they are happy to be together again and cannot wait to see them again. We will miss her just like we do Bob so much as we know your family will. Our blessings to all, Mamie Leach, Kenneth Leach and family##imported-begin##Mamie Leach & Kenneth ##imported-end##
