“ Remembering Mamoo: She always loved to watch her grand kids sing and dance. She was someone who enjoyed music and always enjoyed having her family by her side. We would have family reunions and she would always enjoy her time that was spent with the entire family. She was always beautiful. She loved to shop. She loved jewelry and clothes. She loved to get her hair done. I always enjoyed helping her paint her finger nails. She always made me smile. I really enjoyed our private conversations. I am so happy and thankful for the time that her great grandson (Braedyn) and I have been able to spend with her throughout the years. She will definitely be missed. I love you Mamoo!

“ Always Loved the fact that no matter what, Marie would tell you exactly what she thought or felt. She really was a wonderful lady. My heartfelt condolences and prayers for the family.
