“ Dear family, I enjoyed visiting with Marie at Morningside. She was a sweet lady with a deep faith. Marie was always dressed so neatly - wonderful bright colors. Her smile was sincere and beautiful; just being in her presence was a joy.

I met Marie when she was a roommate of my mother-in-law for one evening at Morrell Rehab. She was putting her puzzle together. We shared a very nice conversation. The next day she went back to Morningside and when I went to visit my mother-in-law Mrs. Jeffords, I saw a piece of her puzzle. I took it and went to Morningside and gave it to her. She was gracious and thanked me. She was a beautiful woman and for that short time, I enjoyed knowing her. Gail, you tutored my daughter in Algebra...remember? That was a lifet time ago....but love you all. Hibby (Gray) Jeffords
