

Mario Farano

September 6, 1922 - January 2, 2006

Mario D. Farano, a resident at Morningside Assisted Living in Hartsville, SC, died Jan.2 2006 at the Hospice House, Florence, SC.

Rev. Ben Gafford will officiate a memorial service Thursday, January 5, 2006 at 5 p.m. at the Brown-Pennington-Atkins Funeral Home Chapel with visitation following the service. A private burial service will be held at Brevard Memorial Park in Sharpes, Florida.

Born in Brooklyn, NY on Sept 6, 1922, he was the son of the late Frank & Nancy Labartino Farano and he grew up in Queens, New York. He served in the USAAF, was stationed in Homestead Air Force Base Homestead, FL from 1942-1945, and was discharged with an Honorable Discharge.

During his retirement years he had two passions. One was to learn to cook. After he mastered the art of Italian cooking, he wanted to share his food with his family, neighbors and friends. The second passion was to learn how to paint. Therefore, all his friends, family members and doctors have shared some of his work. As his cooking and painting decreased, his sense of humor increased, which kept the staff Morningside and McLeod Hospice on their toes.

Surviving are his daughter & son-in-law, Nancy & Vern Myers of Hartsville, SC; son and daughter-in-law, Frank & Peg Farano of Colorado Springs, CO; grandchildren, Michelle Wrona of Hartsville, SC, Angela (Derek) Strickler of Manitou Springs, CO, Christopher (Stacy) Myers of River Falls, WI, and Betsy Myers (Stacy) of Tulsa OK; great-grandchildren, Jake, Dylan, Connor, Molly, Emma, Andy, Matt and Katy.

The family would like to thank the staff of Morningside Assisted Living and the entire staff of McLeod Hospice for the loving care and support for Mario and his family.

Memorials for Mario Farano may be made to McLeod Hospice, 1203 E. Cheves St., Florence, SC 29506.
