“ William Jesse and family,
Mrs. Margie will be missed greatly. She served the Lord with her all. As I told her several times, she was one of the few people who truly lived for the Lord. She didn't have to tell you that she was a Christian, either; her mannerisms and good deeds said it for her. I loved her for her gentle nature, warm smile, and all the laughs we've shared. There will never be another Mrs. Margie. You all will be in my thoughts and prayers. Praying for God to surround you all with comfort and peace during these difficult times. Love

“ Oh, how I loved Miss Margie. She was such a fine example of a Godly woman. When I went to work at Sonoco, she was "retired" but working. We, in Corporate Benefits, loved her so much and did not want her to quit working. But her children needed her to keep their children so she retired for real. I loved her and learned so much from her. Heaven is celebrating that she is "home" for good. But we with our little faith will only miss the wonderful mother, Grandmother and wise friend that she was. I will see you again, Marjorie (she always corrected me when I called her Margie).

“ Dear Friends, What a blessing Margie has been, especially to me. She set the right example for everyone. She loved her God, Family and so many friends. Our comfort comes because we know she new Her Lord and Savior and now rest in His arms and no longer has the pain and suffering that the cancer caused her. God expects us to mourn those that we lose to the death angel but to honor them by sharing their love with our family and friends. You have been and will continue to be in our prayers.
