“ Donna and Danielle, Our hearts are breaking for you right now. You have always been by our side when we needed someone the most. We will never forget how you took us in and cared for us when mama was sick. We will also never forget the "gourmet peanut butter sandwiches" Mark made for us and how he loved us. He didn't just tell us he loved us, he always showed it to us. We are so blessed to have had you in our lives. We love you, pray for you, and want to be here for you. I have never seen a daddy who loved their daughter the way Mark loved his. Danielle, you are so blessed to have the parents that you have, and your daddy is going to be so missed. Remember that it is okay to cry. God will never put anything on you that he wont help you through. You are not in this alone. We love you both so very much.##imported-begin##Jessica and Tiffany Malphus##imported-end##

I'm so sad about the lost of your dad. It puts a burden on my heart to know you lost him while you are so young. “ Dear Donna, Danielle, Kelli, Lorraine and Dale, and the entire extended Davis Family -

Mom and I were so saddened to hear of your loss. Mark was a very special man, and Donna, you were always there by his side. Both of you were so talented and took much pride as you made our landscape look beautiful each time you all touched it. We could hardly wait to hear his tractor outside because when you and Mark finished, you could really tell your gifted hands had been working!

Our prayers are with you, and there will never be another Mark. A special thank you to, Lorraine Davis, as he had the same special caring love in his heart as Mark. Lorraine, we are praying for you and Dale as well. He will be missed and please know that if we can help in any way; we will always be there for you.

May God give the comfort that only He can give during a time such as this - it was so sudden and we never know when our time will come. As we only pass this way once, may each of us be as loving and as kind as you and Mark were to others in need.

Sincerely,

Doris Griggs & Nona Mae Howard###imported-begin###Doris H. Griggs & Nona Mae Howard###imported-end###

“ Hi Donna,
I am trully sorry to find out about Mark. I know that we usually got to see each other at the family renions. However, everytime my husband and I would go by your house, you and Mark were usually outside working. I would say to my husband "there's my cousin, I guess I will get to talk to him at the renion". We never took time to stop in. It's times like now we really realise how little time God leaves us on this earthly world. My prayers and thoughts will be with you.
