Marty served his country in the United States Air Force for 5 years before entering the University of South Carolina School of Law. Marty returned to Hartsville and practiced law for 45 years, including spending 30 of those as counsel for the City of Hartsville. He served his community tirelessly through many projects, including the Renofest Bluegrass Festival. He was honored with numerous awards for his service.

Survivors include his wife, his sons, and daughters-in-law, Martin and Karen

Driggers of Hartsville, SC and Benson and Lara Driggers of Columbia, SC. His grandchildren are Grace Driggers, Scott Driggers, West Driggers, Eve Driggers, Hope Driggers, of Hartsville, SC, and Benson Driggers, Trevor Driggers, and Graham Driggers, of Columbia, SC. “ Dear Nancy and family,

First let me say that I regret that I could not be at his service. Marty was my fraternity brother and friend at dear old Clemson many years ago. I had the joy of living across the hall from Marty when I was a sophomore and he was a junior. He was such a great guy and I looked up to him for his leadership as the head cheerleader and as the Zeta president. He was fun to know and josh with day in and day out from across the hall. I don't believe I have seen him since he was in law school when we partied once or twice in Columbia. I know that he has done well in life and I am proud to have known him. God bless Marty and the family. He is in a better place today. With great affection and memories,

“ I knew Marty through his work as city attorney and through RenoFest. Whenever I would visit him in his office he always had time for me and would tell me interesting stories about Hartsville. When I met his wife, Nancy, I told my wife Sue "they are both so nice, we should have them to dinner sometime." Yeah, like many things in life, we never got around to it and for that I am truly sad. As my father always said in parting: "May peace be with you."

Marty was my friend. He treated me as a friend and for that my life was made richer. Mrs. Nancy the two of you frequently opened your home and heart to bunch of ragtag guys like me that I will never ever forget. He will always live in my heart and mind. I can imagine that when my time comes,he'll squatting on the far banks of the Jordan maybe drawing pictures in the sand. And when he sees me coming he will jump up yelling my name, then go running thru the shallow water reaching for my hands. God bless y'all.

Randall Lear

Randall, the lines to that song, "FAR SIDE BANKS OF JORDAN," is one that Harry, Sr. & I sang in the "SMOKE ON THE MOUNTAIN HOMECOMING" play. Marty was an integral part of all three "SMOKE" plays. We named him "Cousin Bubba." He would slap that big stand-up bass fiddle and sing harmony with us in that high, clear tenor voice. I will miss his voice, his music, his wit, his laughter, his counsel, but most of all his friendship, which lasted 69 years for us (as did other members of our class). "HAPPY TRAILS" to you - until we meet again. HAPPY TRAILS to you - keep smiling until then. Who cares about the clouds if we're together? Just play that bass & dream of sunny weather. HAPPY TRAILS to you - 'til we meet - again. Via Con Dios, my friend. I'll see you again on the "FAR SIDE BANKS OF JORDAN."
