“Angela and Bill, Trey and Will, Marvene, Maggie, Charlie; Charlie, Glenda and Chad; Justin, Jamie, Ruth Pope and the rest of the wonderful Hooker and Gilbert families, all descendants of 'Mama Ruth,' truly my second mother, my heart is truly broken for all of you. I feel like you are also my family...my second family and I grieve along with you for Woody and Doc Jr. I myself experienced a month of joy including meeting a first cousin I did not know I had; changing into a week and weekend of sadness so quickly...a scare in the hospital and then hearing of these two deaths....As Shakespeare and Jesus Christ both said, to paraphrase, "Things can change or happen in the twinkling of an eye." Needless to say, i am stunned. What can I say about Doc Jr.? I will never forget the joy that Bobbie Jean and Doc Sr., Angela and Marvene, and Mama Ruth had over his birth. He was appropriately named after his Dad. I grew up knowing all the family well along with my parents, Jim and VI Ballard, as we took trips and did things together; my family rented a house from Ruth behind the restaurant (which is not there anymore.) Many nights Ruth would come over late and cry on mother Vi's shoulders about problems with JZ. Ruth nursed me quickly back to health by staying with me all night after gall bladder surgery. I graduated from Furman in 1963. I was away from Hartsville for most of the years between 1963 and 1998. But fast forward a few of those years to a trip 'home' when i visited RDI. In walked behind the counter was one of the most precious, presence-bearing, cutest, and downright cocky, proud little red headed freckled faced boys I've ever seen. I think he was about 10 years old. He exuded an air of confidence and strength and politeness beyond his young years. If I recall correctly, he had a cute spiky haircut, standing up in air. He said, "Who are you?" I told him my name and asked, "Who are you?" 'He grinned broadly and said, "I am Little Doc." I teased him by saying, "Wow, you don't look so little to me." He laughed, said, "I think I've heard about you." Then he fished out a soda and went on to the back. I was impressed with this little tyke! After I returned to Hartsville for good in 1998, I finally got to know him and Hart better. (Flash back about 10 years or so....when I was visiting Mama Ruth in her house, Bobbie Jean and *this little boy came walking into the house. I asked Ruth who this kid was...she smiled as she introduced me to the baby of the family...Hart. He also won my heart over.) I am sorry time was too short for me to know Hart better but everyone loved him as a host at Ruth's. I did have the pleasure of knowing Doc Jr. better. He proudly told me how he had quit one of his 'vices' and I told him how proud I was of him. He made me laugh so many times. He loved people and life. He always had a smile and friendly wave for me every time he came inside to eat or drink coffee. He was a great guy, humble about the few faults he had but not one to dwell on them or feel sorry for himself. His friends were legion. In himself, he was a legend at RDI. I will truly miss him. I better stop now before my tears hit my computer keys. Mama Ruth, Doc and Bobbie Jean, Hart, Woody, and Charlie Lockett, and Mr. Gilbert, first husband of Mama Ruth, welcome your new star in your heavenly family. To you scoffers out there, check out the book and movie, "Heaven is for Real." If you are not as moved to tears or awed by this movie (a true story) as I was, there is something wrong with you!

RIP, Doc Jr. Your family and friends will never forget you. We will always love you and miss you and treasure every memory of you.*

“ Dear Angela, Marvene, and the entire Hooker family, On behalf of Embrace Hospice family, the Hartsville Nazarene church family and the Howard Family, I would like to express a heartfelt sorrow for your loss. I also am sorry that I could not assist with the funeral services Thursday! Your family is precious to me and In the book of John chapter 14, reminds us that in My Father’s house there are many rooms; if that were not so, He would have told us and He has gone there to prepare a place for us and He will come and receive us that where He is we will be also.
Family, this earth is not our home and we are only passing through this land, so hold on to the promise. My prayer is that God will hold you close as you press on.

“ I'm at a loss for words. Another very close friend. My prayers go out to Doc's family as with Woody. Maybe Woody's passing was more than Little Doc could handle. Doc was a good old soul. I will miss you Doc! Love, Beth Galloway

“ I just want the family to know that I'm so sorry. This is the second loss in your family this week. Doc was married to my mother. I can remember him taking me fishing and always getting to go to Ruth's after school and get a bottle coke and fries. I haven't seen him since my mother past last year and am so shocked to see that he's passed. I'm at a loss for words. Lord please comfort his family help them through this difficult time. In Jesus name.
