Mr. Reynolds, widower of Mildred Flowers Reynolds, died peacefully on Friday, February 22, 2013 with his family at his bedside. Born in Hartsville, SC, he was a son of the late Marvin Lester and Laura Lawton Reynolds, Sr. He was a life-time member of First Baptist Church and enjoyed making woodcrafts for the church Bazaar. He was an excellent self-taught craftsman who derived great pleasure from building furniture to give to family and friends. He liked sports and especially watching college football and NASCAR racing.

Mr. Reynolds retired from Sonoco after 36 years of service and was a member of the Old Timers' Club. He attended the Citadel and then joined the U. S. Navy, faithfully serving his country during WWII while being stationed in the Philippines. He was married to his loving wife, Mildred, for 54 wonderful years. His love for his wife, children, and grandchildren was tremendous and he always enjoyed spending time with them.

Surviving are his son and daughter-in-law, Dr. Lester L. (Lori) Reynolds of Hartsville, SC; daughters and sons-in-law, Dr. Susan (Dr. Albert Cannon) Reynolds of Hartsville, SC, Laura (Anthony) Harris of Cheraw, SC; grandchildren, Dr. David Reynolds of Charleston, SC, Anna (Dow Hardee) Reynolds of Hartsville, SC, Tony Harris of Cheraw, SC, Lawton Harris of Cheraw, SC, Margaret Jean Harris of Cheraw, SC; caregiver, Libby Denham of Florence, SC. The family greatly appreciates the care given by the Morrell Nursing Center and Carolina Pines Regional Medical Center.

“ Dear Susan, You are in my thoughts today. The loss of a parent seems to put a void in ones life...as though you are missing a big part of your heart. My dad passed almost 10 years ago; I still miss him dearly, but his memory lives for ever and I have to smile when I think of some of our wonderful experiences together...and some not so good, but funny now. And, I thank God I am a part of that man. Your dad was such a gentle easy-going person...just like you. Think of the warm memories of this kind gentleman and may you have comfort.
Please give my most sincere condolences to the family.
Love to you,
