“ We will miss our precious friend we called our Mema, she was always great to be around. She was indeed a prayer warrior. In good times or bad she was just one prayer away. We will miss the visits in her home and the abundance of fellowship, Especially the times when I would ride with them to visit a Church in Dillon SC or to the Indian Campmeeting in Penbroke NC. A fond memory the last time we visited in her home, was the CD of Charles Johnson and the Revivers. She had it in her kitchen beside the yellow phone on the wall. Debbie Angel Ken and Grandchildren. We lift you all up in our prayers. Through her Faith in God, she made it home Forever in our hearts and in our prayers, we love you like our 2nd Family. IN HIS CARE, GRADY AND MELVA O'NEAL
