“ Mary lived beside us for slightly over a year, but Gail and I came to enjoy chatting with her. She was multi-talented and must have loved to entertain, for she said several times that she wanted to have a party for the neighborhood. Sadly, her health prevented that. I was always welcome in her home, and she even came to see us a couple of times, once while pushing a walker. I will miss her but have both those memories and the pleasure of getting to know her daughter Kathy and son-in-law Joe, both of whom really took great care of her.
