“ Dear Smith Family, I am so sorry for your loss. Mrs. Mary was such a fine lady. She always had a smile and a hello for me. She was a neighbor of mine for 24 years. When I saw her leave with y'all for the last time, I was sad. Please take care, and find comfort in the wonderful memories.

“ Mendell and family:
I was so saddened to hear of your loss. Mrs. Mary was a special lady. I enjoyed many summer play dates with Marianne that I will always cherish. Marilyn and Mary must have been quite a team and I would love to go back in time and accompany them on one of their infamous buying trips. I know the loss and emptiness that you feel but rest assured their is a reunion in Heaven that will be joyous. My thoughts and prayers are with your family.
