“ Linda, I am so sorry as I read of the loss of your Mother. I have read over tiime all of the nice comments that you have made in your name and your Mother's name in honor of others that have passed and it is now time that you receive some of those thoughts back. I pray that the Lord will give you the peace of heart that only He can provide in the loss of a dear Mother. God bless you.

“ Dear Stewart Family,

I attended church with Mrs. Mary these last few years until poor health started keeping me at home. She was always a true friend, and had a smile that make me feel good. I enjoyed being around her, and will miss knowing she is a phone call away. But I know where she is, and will look forward to seeing her again one day. My prayers are with the entire family during this sad time.
