“ I am sadden by the passing of Aunt Mary Alice. My prayers and thoughts go out to the entire family. I have fond memories of going to her house as a small boy and riding those push scooters with my cousins. She will be missed by many and though she can not be replaced , time will make her passing easier to accept. Keep her memories close to you. May God be with us all. “ Today's world has turned too gray. We don't seem to know what folks stand for or what they really think about an issue. Thank God for Mrs. O'Neal and the other plumb lines God has placed in our lives, those people whose very lives scream "right vs.wrong" ... "life vs. death" ... "black vs. white". No one ever had to wonder what Mrs. O'Neal thought or where she stood, yet they never felt condeemed or judged, only loved. I can hardly believe I am about to use the words "coffee and cheese" in the same sentence, but another of Mrs. O'Neal's lessons taught me that not only do they belong in the same sentence, but oftentimes in the same cup. Thank God for the plumb lines in my familys' lives, one of which was Mrs. O'Neal!!! Her memory will always make me smile.##imported-begin##Skip, Cyndy, Kimball and Forrest##imported-end##
